

Michigan Livestock Industry Scholarship Foundation Application

Due March 22, 2024

MLISF SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA: Annually, 6-12 scholarships ranging from $1,000-$3,000 are typically awarded. The foundation board selects a set of applicants for in-person interviews based on the written applications. Having a passion for the animal sciences, applicants must have previously completed a minimum of 12 credits while at Michigan State University (MSU), with a minimum GPA of 2.5. Awardees must be enrolled at MSU and presently pursuing an undergraduate degree. Students enrolled in the MSU Institute of Ag. Tech. may apply if they are seeking the scholarship to be awarded following transfer to an MSU undergraduate program. Majoring in Animal Science is not required, but applicants must be seeking careers specifically related to the beef cattle, sheep, swine, equine, meats, and(or) the food animal pre-vet industries. MLISF scholarships are not awarded for pursuit of graduate or professional degrees.

SHELLE SCHOLARSHIP (ADDITIONAL CRITERIA): Applicants must be a MSU Animal Science major who is dedicated to pursuing a career in the equine industry, in a field other than veterinary medicine. Strong consideration will be given those with background, experience and(or) interest in Arabian horses, breeding horses, and(or) experience with multiple livestock species.
