Edmund Morris

Winner of the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award

Scholar Edmund Morris will offer reflections on the development of Roosevelt’s conservation vision: the first glimmers of sustainability as a goal of natural resources management.

Morris has penned a three-volume chronicle of the life of Roosevelt and spent 14 years as Ronald Reagan’s authorized biographer, ultimately publishing the national bestseller “Dutch: A Memoir of Ronald Reagan.”

Monday, March 26 • 3 p.m.
Big Ten Room C • Kellogg Center

Morris’ talk is sponsored by the Boone and Crockett Club, the MSU Center for Systems Integration and Sustainability, and the MSU James Madison College.

This lecture is free and open to the public and is followed by a reception.
