

Asparagus

Under ideal conditions, a single asparagus spear can grow up to 10 inches in a 24-hour period.

Many Michigan farmers harvest asparagus by hand; this provides eaters with an entirely edible spear with little to no waste.

Asparagus is a nutritious source of vitamins A and C and potassium.