The Michigan Farm to Institution Network (MFIN) helps people across the farm to institution supply chain learn, connect, and collaborate. Institutional food service professionals, farmers, and food suppliers as well as farm to institution advocates, supporters, and researchers are invited and welcome to participate. To learn more and join, visit mifarmtoinstitution.org.

Cultivate Michigan is the local food promotion and tracking campaign of the Michigan Farm to Institution Network. Visit cultivatemichigan.org to download featured food promotional materials, find tracking tools, and learn more.
