4-H Club Map

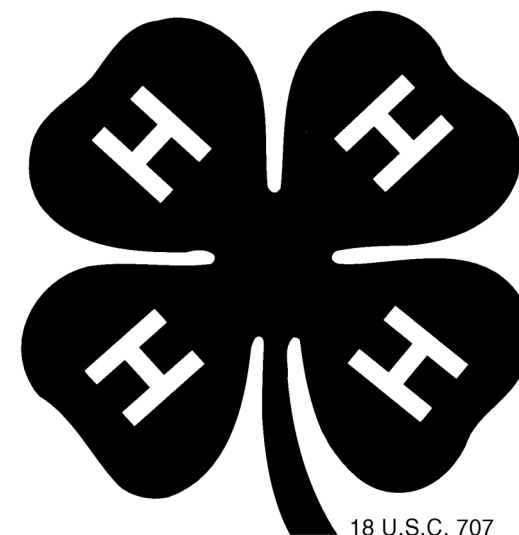

Did you know 4-H is ...

- ✪ The largest out-of-school educational program in the United States.
- ✪ For all kids from 5 to 19 years old.
- ✪ Located in every county in Michigan through the MSU Extension Office.
- ✪ Taught by caring, trained volunteers using materials prepared by youth development specialists at Michigan State University.
- ✪ Now offering programs that help prepare kids for their roles as adults in the complex world of the future.
- ✪ A great way to experience different cultures and lifestyles by meeting new people, traveling to foreign countries or hosting international visitors.

Commonly asked questions

- Q: How old do kids have to be to get into 4-H?
A: 4-H programs are open to all people from 5 to 19 years of age.
- Q: How much does it cost to join 4-H?
A: 4-H does not have a participation fee to join. Individual clubs may charge dues to cover expenses and some project areas, such as photography and livestock, may require extra investments for supplies and equipment.
- Q: We live in the city. Can my kids still join 4-H?
A: 4-H programs are open to all young people, no matter where they live. There are programs in every county in Michigan. Some projects that are especially well suited to city areas include community beautification, dog obedience, drama, food and nutrition, gardening and computer science.
- Q: I want my kids to be included in 4-H, how do we join?
A: It's easy to join 4-H! Start by contacting the Michigan State University Extension - Jackson County office at (517) 788-4292. The office is located at 1715 Lansing Avenue, Suite 257 in Jackson, Michigan. Office hours are Monday through Friday from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm.
