Rule Changes for 2024:

- Goats are allowed to be shown in a chain collar (including goat pinch collars) or show halter. No nylon or rope halters and no dog pinch collars.
- Blocking of your goat during showing is allowed. Ears will be shown in the natural position. Lifting/holding goats off of the ground is not allowed.
- No pre-show drenching or use of behavior alternating substances are allowed.

Important to Remember:

- Goat Registration Forms will be due in person to the Goat Superintendents. They must be turned in to the Goat Superintendents on Saturday May 4th at the Extension Office.

This form is required by the Goat superintendents and is in addition to your fair entry form. Please contact the Goat Superintendents if you have any questions about the form or are unable to turn your forms in on May 4th.

- There is a $5 per 4H member participant fee per small animal species. The $5 participant fee is due to the Goat Superintendents at check in.
- Record Book Project is due at check in. The project requires members to write at least two paragraphs answering several questions about their goat project.
- Your goat must have one of the following types of identification to be allowed at fair:
 1. United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) goat scrapie tag attached to their ear.
 2. Registered breeding stock may have an official breed registration tattoo in their ear. A copy of the registration certificate listing the tattoo must accompany the goat to fair. Tattoo must be legible at check in.
 3. For Non-Registered goats with no ears or injured ears (ex LaMancha), the scrapie tag must be attached to an adjustable collar to be worn at all times at fair. A tail flap tattoo will not be accepted for id.
 4. Breeds that allow it, (ex pygmy) can be microchipped but must carry the registration papers with the goat and provide a microchip reader.
 - All market wethers must have a scrapie tag in their ear or a tag attached to a collar.
 - All imported goats must meet the above identification rules and have an Interstate Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) from the state of origin. The CVI must include the results of a negative brucellosis test for goats six months or older, except wethers.
 - All goats without proper scrapie tags or tattoo with paperwork will be sent home. Contact Superintendents prior to fair for assistance.

General Information:

- All goat kids born for the 2024 Fair need to be born by April 1st. This applies to all breeds and includes does and wethers. Possession date for all goats is May 1st.
- Are allowed to bring up to 4 goats total to the fair and it is 1 goat per class.
- Fair entry forms are due to the Fair Office in June and are required to be able to show at the fair.

PreFair

- Barn Cleanup day is the Sunday before fair from 11am to 1pm.
- No bedding or decorations can be put in barn prior to the Thursday before fair.

Check In:

- Check In is on Saturday from 11am to 2pm.
- Do not unload your goats before your goats are checked by the Superintendent.
- Your goat must have one of the following types of identification to be allowed at fair:
 1. United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) goat scrapie tag attached to their ear.
 2. Registered breeding stock may have an official breed registration tattoo in their ear. A copy of the registration certificate listing the tattoo must accompany the goat to fair. Tattoo must be legible at check in.
 3. For Non-Registered goats with no ears or injured ears (ex LaMancha), the scrapie tag must be attached to an adjustable collar to be worn at all times at fair. A tail flap tattoo will not be accepted for id.
 4. Breeds that allow it, (ex pygmy) can be microchipped but must carry the registration papers with the goat and provide a microchip reader.
 - All market wethers must have a scrapie tag in their ear or a tag attached to a collar.
 - All imported goats must meet the above identification rules and have an Interstate Certificate of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) from the state of origin. The CVI must include the results of a negative brucellosis test for goats six months or older, except wethers.
 - All goats without proper scrapie tags or tattoo with paperwork will be sent home. Contact Superintendents prior to fair for assistance.
- After check in no animals are allowed out of their pens on Saturday.
- Sign up sheets for Barn Duty (required for everyone) and Showmanship will be posted in the barn.

Fair Week:

- Pens must be cleaned completely every day before 10am. Spot clean and check water during the day. Adding lime to your pen is highly recommended.
- No animals are allowed out of pens after 11am without Superintendents permission and can only be walked in areas designated by the Goat Superintendents.
- No administrating of medication without Superintendents permission.
- A 2 hour Barn Duty shift is required by everyone.

Goat Show:

- Goat Show starts at 8:30am on Wednesday in the show arena next to the goat barn.
- Proper show and showmanship attire must be worn or you will not be allowed to show.

Boer showmanship: western style allowed with long or short sleeve plaid shirt and jeans.

Dairy and Pygmy showmanship: Black, white, or khaki pants and a plain white long or short sleeve shirt (A small emblem such as a 4-H logo is acceptable).

Goat Record Book Project

For your goat project you are required to answer at least one of the following questions listed below.

Your answer should be a minimum of two paragraphs and either typed or handwritten on an 8 ½ x 11 sheet of paper.

Make sure to include your name on the paper. You can also attach a photo of your goat if you choose.

Your paper is due at Check in on Saturday and we will be displaying them in the barn. Any questions, please contact the Goat Superintendents.

Choose at least one of the following questions to discuss:

- What did you learn from your goat project this year?
- What challenges did you have this year?
- What was your favorite part of your goat project?
- What would you change about your goat project for next year?
- What did you enjoy most about raising your goat?
- What is something funny or surprising that happened this year with your goat?
- Why did you decide to raise or show goats?
- How did you choose your goat for fair?
- How have you trained and prepared your goat for the fair?
