

Foreclosure Prevention Education

2017

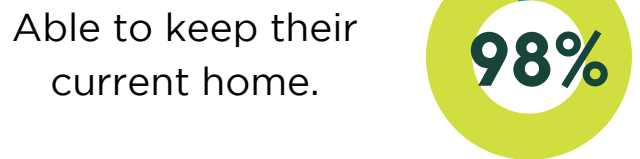

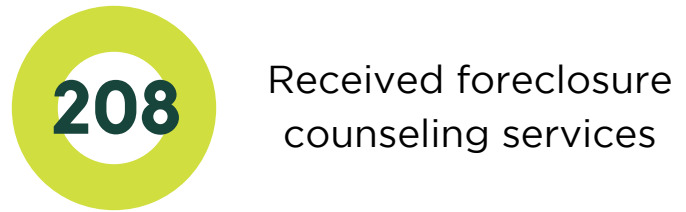

MSU Extension's Financial and Homeownership Education team delivers foreclosure prevention and intervention education and counseling by MSHDA and Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) certified housing counselors. These counselors work directly with Michigan residents, providing one-on-one information and options in addition to foreclosure. All counseling notes and outcomes were reported into Home Counselor Online (HCO), an online database created by Fannie Mae.

PARTICIPANTS

PROGRAM RESULTS

Of those who were able to keep their home:

